ONENESS OF THE WORLD OF HUMANITY

"Baha'u'llah addresses Himself to the world of men, saying, 'Ye are all leaves of one tree and the fruits of one garden.' That is, the world of existence is none other than one tree, and the nations or peoples are like unto the different branches or limbs thereof, and human individuals are similar to the fruits and blossoms thereof. While in all past religious books and epistles, the world of humanity has been divided into two parts; one called the people of the Book, or the Pure Tree, and the other, the Evil Tree. One half of the people of the world were looked upon as belonging to the faithful, and the other as belonging to the irreligious and the infidel; one half of the people were consigned to the mercy of the Creator, and the other half were considered as objects of the wrath of their Maker. But Baha'u'llah proclaimed the Oneness of the World of humanity—He submerged all mankind in the Sea of Divine Generosity." --Abdul-Baha
