

Reform Bahai Faith Ecumenical Prayer Meeting

“To be a Bahai simply means to love all the world; to love humanity and try to serve it; to work for universal peace and universal brotherhood.” —Abdul-Baha

The Reform Bahai Faith affirms the universal spiritual and moral principles taught in all of the great religious traditions. People of all persuasions and religions are invited to attend. Feel free to bring a prayer or religious reading from your own faith or tradition to share. Universal in outlook, we believe in the non-exclusivism of religious truth. Readings are from Judaism, Christianity, Islam, Buddhism, Hinduism, Daoism, Confucianism, the Bahai Writings, and other world religions. No ritual or solicitation of funds. Light refreshments. See our website for details.

If one desires suggestions for reading, The Global Testament of Faith is available online at the Reform Bahai website and has many interfaith readings one might also choose from and which convey the spirit of the occasion: http://reformbahai.org/Global\_Testament\_of\_Faith.html

All are welcome! We'd love to meet and pray with you!

WHAT: A brief five to ten-minute introductory talk and Ecumenical Prayer Meeting, refreshments and fellowship.

WHEN: March 27, 2012, Tuesday evening, 7:00pm to 8:30pm.

WHERE:

American Legion Hall

234 Walnut Boulevard (corner of 3rd Street and Walnut Boulevard, downtown Rochester)
Rochester, MI 48307

Watch on YouTube the Introduction to the Reform Bahai Faith, presented to the Troy Interfaith Group, March 5, 2012. <http://youtu.be/jH1SHXqq6AU>

For more information, call 248-652-4982 or see www.ReformBahai.org
The Reform Bahai Faith, P. O. Box 81842, Rochester, Michigan 48308
Email: reformbahai@comcast.net